WHAT'S WORKING

- Team structure sound: Natasha qualifies by message, Susi closes on calls. Both completed DISC assessments. Their profiles match their roles almost exactly. Don't change what works.
- Susi's brand storytelling lands. The 700-people-a-day community narrative resonates. Confirmed live on a prospect call during the audit.
- Objection handling on price and track record is instinctively solid. The construction contractor previously built for Kempinski. Serious buyers recognize that reference immediately.
- 10% guaranteed ROI for the first 2 years, with projected 15% net return. A rare commitment in this market and a strong closing argument when used correctly.

SECONDARY GAPS

- Marketing not communicating key value props publicly: 10% ROI guarantee, lifetime membership, in-house management, 14 units left.
- Tower 1 ground floor sold as lesser Tower 2, not as its own offer for a distinct buyer profile.
- Urgency is real (14 units, August) but not consistently used as a closing tool.
- Natasha wants to develop into a closing role. Sales aptitude and readiness to be assessed during training before expanding her responsibilities.
- Referral program (1% commission) exists but has never been communicated to Nirvana members. 700+ daily visitors already trust the brand. None of them know they can earn a commission for referring a buyer. Zero cost to activate.

TOP 3 ISSUES TO FIX (PRIORITY ORDER)

PRIORITY 1 — HIGHEST IMPACT

Value of the offer not communicated before the pitch

Buyers hear features before they understand why those features matter. Three questions must come first: what is your timeline, what is your budget range, and are you looking at other real estate? That last question opens the door to contrasting Nirvana's branded, fully managed product against generic Bali investments. This is what the entire training builds toward: an offer stack that answers every objection before it gets raised.

PRIORITY 2

No committed next step and no urgency communicated

Every call and meeting closes with "I'll send you the details." No scheduled follow-up, no confirmed date, nothing that creates a reason to act. Every interaction must end with a date, a time, and a reminder of where the project stands: 14 units left, August target, no second phase.

PRIORITY 3

Product knowledge gaps under live pressure

The team cannot answer basic construction questions on the spot: AC system, water filtration specs, warranty scope, club access logistics, PT company details. Every "I'll check and come back to you" is friction. For a $189K–$259K investment, it erodes trust in the developer's credibility.

02 Updated Training Program

Session order revised based on audit findings. New offer foundation session added. Marketing team joins Session 1 and Session 5. Closing runs as two individual 1-hour sessions, because opposite DISC profiles require different coaching.

Pre-Session Homework (new)

Nirvana team provides all technical specs before Session 1. The product knowledge cheat sheet is then built live during Session 1 as a group exercise. Every construction spec, FAQ, and objection response written out so both salespeople can answer any question on the spot.

Specs needed: AC type, water filtration spec, warranty scope, club access logistics, PT Global structure, lease term (27 years from handover), Tower 1 vs Tower 2 differences, income pool mechanics, all 3 payment plans.

03 Follow-up Sequences

4 emails and 5 WhatsApp messages sent by marketing to all inbound leads

- Susi and Natasha have no control over these messages. They are created and sent automatically by the marketing team via HubSpot. Everything on this page is a Toby conversation, not a training item. A full rewrite of both sequences is ready to hand to marketing.

FIX NOW

The guarantee and the projection are both real. The problem is they appear across channels without context, so a serious investor comparing messages can't tell which is which. Lead with the guarantee, follow with the projection and the demand data behind it.

10%	15%
Guaranteed min.	Projection (net)

WHAT'S BROKEN

Identity confusion from message 1 (now fixed)

The first WhatsApp was signed as Susi but sent from Natasha's profile. The rewrite corrects this: Natasha's name on all messages, and when a call is ready, she introduces Susi explicitly ("my manager Susi will reach out to set up a time with you").

All pitch, zero discovery

9 messages total — not one question asked about the prospect's timeline, budget, or goals. Every message assumes the same thing: the person needs to be convinced. Works on the small percentage already sold. Fails everyone else silently.

Repeated messages and wasted touchpoints

WhatsApp messages 4 and 5 are near-identical to message 1. Zero memory of prior contact. The construction update reads: "key structural areas are actively under construction" — a specific milestone is a trust-building moment; this version is noise.

The final email surrenders

"We completely understand if now isn't the right time… reconnect anytime." No urgency, no hook, no reason to act. It hands the decision entirely to the prospect and expects them to self-motivate. They won't.

No urgency or scarcity

None of the messages mention that 14 units remain, that August is the target, or that there is no second phase. Every message reads as if the buyer can decide whenever they feel like it.

No value proposition

Messages lead with features (boutique suites, managed hotel) without establishing why this beats any other Bali investment. Nirvana's brand recognition, 750 daily pass demand, and fully managed returns are never used as a value argument.

Message 1

Hello Matthieu,
I'm Susi, Sales Manager at Nirvana Life🙌

I'm excited to connect! We've just launched The Sanctuary Hotel Suites, a boutique off-plan project in Berawa with only 32 suites available.

It's designed for both lifestyle and investment: early buyers secure special incentives, priority choice of units, and strong passive returns.

Would you like me to take you through the highlights on a short call, or would a site visit suit you better?

Message 2

Hi Matthieu, I wanted to highlight why investors are moving quickly on The Sanctuary Hotel Suites🙌

Compared to villas (8–10% ROI) and condos (3–5%), our model is projected at 12–15%+ net returns, fully managed and hands-free.

Shall we arrange a short online call this week so I can walk you through the ROI simulation?

Message 3 — Construction update

The Sanctuary is taking shape.

✅ Key structural areas are actively under construction, with steady progress across the site
✅ Development is tracking in line with planned timelines, keeping delivery on course
✅ Full site operations are running with focused execution across all teams

Every day of work brings The Sanctuary closer to becoming a space where investment meets intentional living.

No specific milestone. No urgency. Reads as filler.

Message 4

Hi Matthieu, just a quick reminder about our new boutique launch, The Sanctuary Hotel Suites🙌

It's a rare off-plan opportunity in Berawa, combining lifestyle, strong returns, and early-bird incentives.

Shall we arrange a short call to walk through the highlights, or would a site visit work better for you?

Near-identical to Message 1. The lead has already read this.

Message 5

Hi Matthieu, following up on my note about our newly launched Sanctuary Hotel Suites in Berawa ✨

The project is designed for both wellness living and investment returns, and early-bird buyers are taking advantage of priority pricing.

Would you like me to share a few unit options with you before we set up a call or site visit?

Near-identical to Messages 1 and 4. Sequence ends here with no close.

REWRITE — CONSISTENT IDENTITY, DISCOVERY-FIRST

Message 1

Hi Matthieu, I'm Natasha from The Sanctuary in Bali.

We only have 14 Nirvana Sanctuary boutique suites left out of 32. These are part of our exclusive serviced residence in Berawa, fully managed as a boutique hotel, with 10% minimum return guaranteed, and other cool benefits like full access to our facilities.

What's your ideal timeline to purchase yours? I ask because units here have been moving faster than we expected and we don't want you to miss out.

Message 2

Hi Matthieu, hope things are well on your side.

We just hit a record last week: 750 day passes in a single day. Most of those people are looking for somewhere to sleep that matches the quality of what they experienced inside.

The 10% minimum return is guaranteed for the first 2 years of operations. Based on current demand, we're projecting up to 15% net. With only 14 units left, I wouldn't want you to miss it.

Are you available for a 15-minute call Thursday or Friday morning with our sales manager Susi?

Message 3

Hi Matthieu, another Nirvana member is purchasing his own private residence right now. We have you on the top of our list but we might not have any more available before you make your decision.

Update from the build: the top floor structure is done, 5 weeks ahead of schedule. Handover confirmed Q1 2027. Susi did a walkthrough video on site last week if you want to see it.

Worth a quick call this week?

Message 4

Hi Matthieu, keeping this one short.

18 units sold out of 32. That leaves 14. When they're gone, they're gone. No second phase, no waiting list.

I can send unit-specific numbers and payment options if it helps before you decide whether to get on a call.

Message 5 — File close

Hi Matthieu.

Fair to say The Sanctuary is off your radar now? Happy to close your file if so, just let me know so I ask our team to take you off the list. But don't want to leave you out on our last available units. Let me know.

REWRITE — 5 EMAILS, SIGNED "NATASHA"

Email 1 — Subject: The Sanctuary, before I send anything

Hi Matthieu,

I'm Natasha from The Sanctuary by Nirvana Life. You reached out recently and I wanted to ask one question before sending anything over.

We have 14 suites left out of 32 in a boutique wellness residence in Berawa. Fully managed, 10% minimum return guaranteed.

What's your rough timeline for making a decision? I ask because units here have been moving faster than we expected.

Natasha

Email 2 — Subject: Something worth knowing about demand

Hi Matthieu,

We just hit a record last week: 750 day passes sold in a single day at Nirvana. Most of those people are looking for somewhere to sleep that matches the quality of what they just experienced. That's the built-in demand for this property.

The 10% minimum return is guaranteed for the first 2 years. Based on current demand, we're projecting up to 15% net. With 14 units left, I wouldn't want you to miss this.

Available for a 20-minute call Thursday at 10am or Friday at 2pm Bali time?

Natasha

Email 3 — Subject: Top floor complete, 14 units left

Hi Matthieu,

Quick update worth sharing. The top floor structure is finished, 5 weeks ahead of schedule, and the site looks incredible. Handover confirmed Q1 2027. Susi recorded a walkthrough video on site last week if you'd like to see where things stand.

14 of 32 units remain. The development closes at 32. No future phases.

If you've been sitting on this, now is a good moment to take a proper look.

Natasha

Email 4 — Subject: Last few units

Hi Matthieu,

18 units sold out of 32. That leaves 14. When they're gone, they're gone. No second phase, no waiting list, no coming back to it later.

I can send unit-specific numbers and all three payment options if it helps to see those before deciding whether to get on a call.

ITEMS FOR YOUR DECISION

Tower 1 Offer Enhancements — SIGN-OFF REQUIRED

Two additions that need your approval before the team can use them in sales conversations: (1) Extended ROI guarantee: 3 years instead of 2 for Tower 1 buyers only. Same guarantee, one extra year. Signals confidence, minimal added risk if you believe in the numbers. (2) Founding Investor recognition: a nameplate, plaque, or designation for the 32 buyers who built this development. Costs nothing, real identity value in a community brand.

Gym Member Database — Activate as warm outreach list — SIGN-OFF REQUIRED

700 people per day at Nirvana. That is a warm list that has never been activated for this project. They already love the brand, some will buy, many will refer. Need your approval to reach out to members directly with a tailored message. Also: approach day pass visitors on-site with one question: "If there was a boutique hotel right here at Nirvana, would you stay in it?" Compile 5 to 10 real answers into an Instagram reel. Real demand, no pitch. Marketing can execute with a single afternoon of filming.

Referral Program — Announce and activate — SIGN-OFF REQUIRED

1% commission referral program exists but has never been communicated to buyers. Buyers are happy and already referring spontaneously — the program would convert organic word-of-mouth into a structured channel. Also: the testimonial shoot Susi has been trying to get off the ground for months. Both are ready to go and need your green light for marketing to execute.

Marketing Team — Schedule joint session after this meeting — DISCUSS

Marketing is not communicating the key value props publicly: 10% ROI guarantee, lifetime gym membership, in-house management, 14 units remaining. New team, no real estate background, no joint strategy yet. Note: I am not meeting with them before this session. The gap is an audit finding. You hear it first. After this meeting, you decide: bring them in directly, or give me the mandate to work with them. Either works.

Natasha's Role: Sales training scope and boundaries — DISCUSS

The training covers closing skills for both people. Susi stays as the primary client-facing closer. Her profile and communication style make her better suited for that role. Natasha's strength is systematic follow-up and written communication. The goal is to build her closing skills for the pipeline she already manages, without changing who leads client conversations.

Follow-up Sequences: Implement consistent ROI framing and rewrite — URGENT

The 10% minimum guaranteed return (first 2 years) and the 15% net projection are both real and defensible. They are appearing across channels without context, so buyers cannot tell the guarantee from the estimate. The fix is consistent layered framing everywhere: guarantee first, projection second with the demand data behind it. A full rewrite of both sequences is ready to hand to marketing before the next message goes out.

Content Strategy: Social proof and demand surfacing — DISCUSS

Two content plays that cost almost nothing. First: approach day pass visitors on-site with one question, "If there was a boutique hotel right here at Nirvana, would you stay in it?" Film 5 to 10 real answers, turn it into a short Instagram reel. Real demand, no pitch. Second: a testimonial series with existing buyers and guests, interactive enough that potential buyers see themselves in it. Both need marketing to execute and your green light.
